We had lunch at this bright centrally located restaurant. This authentic Chinese restaurant is not what you expect to find in a Doubletree hotel! It's not your usual dim sum joint; LWH has white table clothes and is quiet. We do not eat pork and I was afraid there would be little to choose from, but LWH specializes in seafood. We shared some wonderful lobster dumplings in the shape of a lobster - gorgeous and tasty!... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Lai Wah Heen:

We went to this restaurant after being told it was the best in Toronto. Well the food was indeed very good, such a shame that we felt rushed through our meal with the waiter hovering over us ready to snatch away our soup bowls before we had finished. Our second course was delivered to the table before we had finished our soup. There was absolutely no ambience or warm welcome and there were only two other tables occup... read more. With original Asian spices delicious traditional meals are prepared in the kitchen of Lai Wah Heen in Toronto, and you may look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine. Of course, the most various ingredients are also used in the most unique combinations and implementations - according to the motto of the Fusion Cuisine on the menu, Many guests are particularly looking forward to the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine.
