Kanga was a 2 minute walk from where we stayed on vacation. We decided to try it out due to the good reviews and we were not disappointed. The pies are small but filling. The service was good. read more. What User doesn't like about Kanga:

I was eating a pie today in the store of gerrard street. I was very excited because when I was in new zelanda I always ate meat pies and after a year I started to feel sour! I chose the canadian pie, with pieces of steak and bacon, but in fact the meat was drowned in the gravy, I was not satisfied especially after spending almost $8 for a pie that in new zelanda would cost me 3 or 4 dollars. the meat (the little one...
