Went for Brunch and loved it. Small space and they are pushing you to finish and get next table in BUT it's yummy and the service is great otherwise. Love organic and local and will return whenever I can. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Eat Real Food - Doug's Public Kitchen:

First, I have to admit that I am not a vegan. When we got to the restaurant, I was really excited about trying the food based on the reviews I had read. I was a little skeptical when I realized they were making imitation food - imitation eggs and bacon. The presentation of the food was beautiful but the taste was definitely not to my liking. I am happy to eat vegan food but imitation is never as good as the original... read more.
