A place to go when you want superb Mediterranean cuisine off downtown Toronto during the rush hours, so goes its name. Truly a popular place in a not-so-popular area to dine with family and friends. read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Rush Hour Restaurant Toronto:

First time at this lovely family restaurant--our friends recommended it and they have been coming here for years. It was a Friday night and the place was packed inside and outside. We had reservations and were seated right away but the service was very slow. The salads arrived but the main dishes took another 45 minutes. The risotto was wonderful but I was not pleased with the "grill marks" on my salmon which left th... read more. Typical European dishes, that's what the Rush Hour Restaurant Toronto from Toronto presents, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. Finally, the most popular national dishes from Portugal can also be found on the menu - this includes not only the diverse fish dishes; the presentation is also part of the experience, offering a vibrant arrangement on the plate, The barbecued food is freshly grilled here on an open flame.
