What User likes about Food & Liquor: Feeling peckish at midnight would in many a city mean a hungry belly until the morning. Fortunately, this joint was both open and near. Pleasantly full of people eating and dinking in a dark maroon room. Five buck beers and a pretty good Asian inspired menu. Cold beef shank thinly sliced with Hoisin sauce, ubiquitous fried calamari that were nevertheless tasty but a little parsimonious, chicken balks coated in a cris... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Food & Liquor:

Food portions used to be larger. I understand costs have gone up, but to pay more now for half the portion size we used to get seems wrong. I hope they will rebalance this. read more.
