What User likes about Drifter's Inn: I stopped in for a beer while in town to hop from antiques shop to flea market because I'd forgotten that Harrow Antiques is closed Tuesdays. The proprietress of this very cozy restaurant / pub located in a converted older house was so very helpful. She gave me a whole list of places to check out and directions on how to get to each one. The beer was nice and cold. The entire place is finished from head to toe in a w... read more. What User doesn't like about Drifter's Inn:

Basic menu with good food. Comfortable atmosphere for a nice lunch with friends. Not easy to locate if you are not sure where it is so plan ahead and look at a map if you are not a local read more. If you want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Drifter's Inn from Harrow is a good bar. It shows that the traditional Canadian meals are well received by the visitors of the establishment. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack is just right, the restaurant offers however also menus typical for Europe.
