What User likes about The Guava: For 30 plus years we used to travel to Toronto for Thai food. Our favourite Toronto Thai restaurant was our gold standard against which we measured all other Thai restaurants wherever we travelled. But when it changed ownership, the food quality fell off. We felt lost and abandoned.... until we discovered The Guava. Unfortunately The Guava is no longer in business. But take heart. It's location is now occupied by My... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Guava: We tried to visit this restaurant at the end of August and we're disappointed to find out it is closed due to what sounds like eviction from there current location. read more. If you crave for afters, The Guava with its delicious desserts can surely make an end of it, Thai meals are prepared here with the popular spices and (fish-) sauces. Even if you're not so hungry, you can treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
