Four of us went to this restaurant for dinner, some of us had the special duck leg confit while another diner had the Tagine de Mer, the escargot appetiser was a generous portion, I also tried their ratatouille salad which was a new item on their menu. It was a very enjoyable evening, it seems like not many people knew about this place in Britannia Shopping plaza, it was a quiet evening for the kitchen staff. We have... read more. What User doesn't like about Ratatouille bistro - CLOSED:

I ordered Paella and asked that the seafood component be replaced by more chicken, the result was slightly burned which was surprising considering Chorizo was a listed ingredient. Problem was the texture and taste was ham sausage not Chorizo. The owner chased us down after we left and accused us of shorting the waitress. Turns out she was tipped well and the adding error was theirs. An apology from the waitress but n... read more. This Bistro is small yet refined and captures attention not just with its ambiance, but also with its offer of typical, delicate menus at typically affordable prices, and you may look forward to the tasty classic seafood cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
