What User likes about Harvest Table: Tipped off on this one by my dad of all people. He was right. Incredible breakfast and vast portions. Never would have expected the quality of food and service from this dark little resto attached to a somewhat run down market. Really great ethos in the place, locally sourced food excellently prepared. Excellent, friendly service. If only I lived closer, I'd be here all the time! read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Harvest Table: Had lunch with my wife. Each had gyro mine regular hers chicken. Lunch came with Greek salad and fries. Mine was good my wife thought salad lettuce rusty and fries over salted. Service a bit slow, no ketchup on our table, had to go get own. Coffee good. Place was full at 11.30 am, mostly breakfast people. Hard chair seats, with padded booths. read more. Harvest Table, famous for its typical Canadian menus, uses ingredients that are typical of the country, The guests of the establishment also appreciate the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. You can just get one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry, Of course, you also have to try the tasty burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided.
