What User likes about Al-Sabeel:

I have been to many restaurants in Windsor until I became familiar with this one. It is very nice one and the food is very nice and authentic. I am hooked and keep going back read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Al-Sabeel:

Lebanese dining rooms are growing more modern and sleek, a sure sign of prosperity. Al-Sabeel's management faced substantial damage from a fire next door. After a long redecoration it now looks confidently modern, a place where business people meet for lunch. The menu concentrates on Lebanese favorites, with concessions to timid outsiders such as moderately-priced burgers and chicken fingers for kids. But the main di... read more.
