What User likes about The Captain's Boil: Walked pass and decided to give it a try. Took advantage of its lunch special and the new lobster roll combo. The Captain's signature sauce goes really well with the seafood. The breaded fried fish was bad however. Generous amount of lobster on the roll. All in all good food for the price and great fun. Service was so-so. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about The Captain's Boil:

Our foods were served in plastic bags and we eat with plastic bib and plastic gloves. The City requires restaurants to install fat filter system in their dish washing and this restaurant does not have to as they use one-time plastic items. Foods are quite tasty but a little salty to me so I gave 3 stars for the freshness but my family was not impressed and may not come back. read more. If you're craving some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: exquisite dishes, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion. Furthermore, you'll find tasty American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian meals.
