The stars aligned and we had a 5/5 experience at L'Unita. Between 9 of us, we tried almost everything on the menu. From buttery burrata cheese, crispy arancini, antipasto, grilled octopus, halibut (perfectly prepared with a delicious corn salsa), pizza (authentic thin crust with light toppings), fresh pastas, to ice cream, gelato, biscotti, and the best cannolis we've ever had. Heirloom tomatoes are in season and luc... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about L'Unita:

Excellent atmosphere and service, with one condition. For a restaurant that has been in operation for 12 years, it was disappointing that the menu does not really appeal to food allergies. I have a sensitivity to gluten and there are few genuine gluten-free options. The manager I talked to my allergy, was more defensive about it than empathy that put a damper in the evening. I hope, given the number of food allergies... read more. At L'Unita, a restaurant with Italian dishes from Toronto, you can enjoy original Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, delicious vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the crispy and crunchy pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven.
