We have visited this location twice, both times the service was great, the food was fresh delicious and my favorite, the ordering and picking up of food did not feel chaotic - the same cannot be said about other kabob restaurants close-by. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What

User doesn't like about Naan and Kabob:

I found this place by accident i was looking for another restaurant and saw this instead. It's tucked away off Markham road so can't see it from the main road. The service was very very friendly and the young lady patiently talked me through the menu options. What really impressed me was that it was so clean, nothing out of place which can be hard to do in restaurants. I choose the paneer. It was grilled with spices... read more. At Naan and Kabob in Toronto, flavorful grilled food is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with tasty sides, Customers repeatedly praise the fine, light flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs and goat cheese is among the hits from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East.
