Recently had the tasting menu the other day. Was the best value for a large amount of food. There are about 6 dishes on the menu and two desserts. With the tasting menu you get a tasting of it all for $65pp. Everything was quite good. very much enjoyed the octopus and the pork belly (separate entrees.) There are no vegetarian options from first glance at the menu - be forewarned. They had a nice wine list. Staff was... read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Doma:
Toronto top 20 to try in 2017 and I am not sure why...Nice staff and pleasant service however the tasting menu was a bit out of sync and not French inspired nor what North Americans would understand to be Korean. Nice fish course and beef course. The desserts were uninspiring. Pricy tasting menu for what was served. read more. In the kitchen of Doma in Toronto, original Asian spices scrumptious traditional courses are prepared, Also, fans of Korean cuisine will be fully satisfied at the restaurant with dishes like Bap, Kimchi or Jjigae. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Doma. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
