Went to this restaurant with my customer. The places has a blend of Korean and Japanese cuisine. My customer and i ordered for the lunch box item containing the alaskan salmon which was great. The wasabi and the salad were great and so was the miso soup and the tea. Though the tea lacked the aroma, it was hot. Only word of caution they take time to serve. So if time is not of the essence thia place is good. It is ups... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WLAN. What User doesn't like about Hon Sushi:

This restaurant was recommended by one of my local friends here because they serve good product. We ordered some sushi and sweet spicy chicken. The sushi were ok, and the chicken is not bad either. They do serve Japanese and Korean dishes. read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Hon Sushi from Burnaby prepares easy-to-digest, tasty Japanese dishes, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. In Korea, Korean dishes such as Kimchi, Bibimbap and Jjigae are considered typical and have a special place on the menu card and the tables of the visitors, Furthermore, the customers love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
