Initially recommended by a local, we stopped by on our return trip from Magog to sample their traditional oven baked bagels. Having consumed hundreds of Montreal style bagels over the past fifty years these were amazing. They were still hot when we left. DO NOT go there on a full stomach. Unfortunately, we have to now contend with 'bread' bagels of Ontario. Can't wait to go back. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Cafe Noir:

They seem to be understaffed or not very organized.... It seems we were waiting in line to order (and later waiting in line to pay) more time than actually eating the food. If there was a lot of people this would be normal, but there...wasnt a lot of people.... read more. At Cafe Noir in Magog, there are delicious sandwiches, small salads and further snacks for quick hunger, as well as cold and hot beverages, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, The guests of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
