Very plain, unpretentious basement restaurant with attentive and friendly service. My wife had the bulgogi bibimbap and I had the spicy pork bibimbap. We shared a nice bottle of sake. The meal arrived with several side dishes - kimchi, spicy cabbage, potato and glass noodles. Everything was so yummy!! Highly recommended. We can't wait to go back. read more. I had the Beef Bulgoggi and it came with all the fixings (see photo) and even though everything was fine and fresh I have to give this meal an plain old average rating because I found the food one dimensional. This restaurant seems to be a hit with the locals because it is 9pm and the restaurant is about 70% full...I wish I knew what these patrons know and I will give this restaurant a second chance in the future.
