It is our company's regular go to restaurant for lunch. The prices are reasonable for this area ($15 average for a burger/entrée type of dish), service is friendly and fast. Waitresses are good looking and the décor is authentic-pub. Overall, a good place to have lunch. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Duke of Westminster:

Exactly what it should be and nothing more. Good local for a beverage and appies but nothing particularly notable. Big space with many rooms means it likely has a spot when others are full. Some decent outdoor space and service as well. read more. For quick hunger in between, Duke of Westminster from Toronto serves delicious sandwiches, small salads, and other treats, as well as hot and cold drinks, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the extensive variety of traditional menus and indulge in the taste of England. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The typical Canadian meals are a hit among the guests of the restaurant.
