Located in Toronto's West End, this restaurant is unassuming and looks very ordinary. At first glance, we thought we've entered a family asian restaurant as both the server and the cook look japanese... But the menu is definitely italian and the food served was amazingly good, specially the linguini alla vongole and the seafood spaghetti. It turns out the chef (who is korean) had spent many years honing his trade in... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. An additional service offered by the establishment is the catering service for visitors, and you can look forward to authentic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Additionally, there are also light Mediterranean meals available, For a snack in between, the tasty sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable.
