A little gem hidden from the buzzing Queen street serving really nice wines and tapas. We had a cheese and meat platter and an amazing Canadian white wine during our visit. The staff are very friendly and the ambience is really good. Definitely a place we would visit again. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Archive:

The atmosphere in this small and cozy wine bar cum tapas neighboring restaurant is very beautiful. The service is friendly, the wine selection on tasting evenings are interesting and instructive for wine makers. The background music is actually worth hearing rarely in a world drowned in Muzak. The limited food service with meat and cheese is also good. So why are you ruining the experience with price gouging? Everyone... read more. Archive from Toronto is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to sit with friends or alone. In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the visitors also love. There are also exquisite menus typical for Europe, You can't absolutely nothing wrong, especially with bite-sized Tapas, because there is something for every palate.
