What User likes about Simon Sushi: Simon Sushi is located in Chinatown on Spadina between Cecil and College. Steps away from Grossmans Tavern. Decor is nothing to write home about but the sushi is very very good. There is a Simon and he is the sushi maker. two can leave satisfied for under $60. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Simon Sushi:

Nothing special about this place. I had a sushi bento box and I found the taste and food to be below average. It was not expensive and they did give a good quantity so it falls under you get what you pay for. There are many better budget sushi restaurants on Queen near Spadina which I would recommend going to. It does have a local type vibe and there were lots of regulars coming and going so I think that is what keep... read more. The large range of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Simon Sushi, The inventive fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a good example of Asian Fusion. Simon Sushi focuses on a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat in its healthy Japanese cuisine, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes on the menu.
