A nice place for a weekday lunch. There is an interesting tapas menu. We went for the lunch table d'hôte. In spite of the heat, we opted for the Cream of Vegetable Soup. It was delicious and evoked memories of eating the same thing at Grandmaman's house. I ordered the salmon tartare with strawberries. It was good but under-spiced for my taste. My dining partner had the tuna with a strawberry green salad. It was tasty... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Fine Poutine & Cholesterol: I went alone to relax have some beer the waiters was nice but not completely understand .. With timing i orderd duck wings this was lost of energy and im sad for the duck that this what they made from him it was dry even the souse couldn't cover it .i hope they make better read more. Experience the sensation of eating and being in a classic American Hollywood movie; that's very normal in this lovingly furnished diner, The traditional Canadian menus are a hit among the customers of the local. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't do anything wrong, because there is something for every palate.
