We stopped here for lunch on our return cycling portion of the Friendship Trail. The sandwiches are big and delicious! Yes, it's a little pricy but we were on vacation so we didn't mind. Bonus for us: large water jugs filled with sliced oranges and lemons. They didn't mind us filling up our water bottles. read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about The Kitchen:

Have heard about The Kitchen a lot on FB, so decided to try it while I was in town. It's in a good location, it's clean and beautiful inside. Seating is on the second floor, so folks with mobility issues would need to get take-out. Three of us ate today. We had the tuna sandwich, a salad of organic greens with chicken, a serving of potato salad, and a Mexican grain bowl. The portions were large. The Mexican grain bowl... read more. A visit to The Kitchen is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, It's worth mentioning that the traditional Canadian menus are well received by the guests of the establishment. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack is just right, Forbreakfast a delicious brunch is offered here.
