What User likes about i Cook Persian Cuisine: The woman who greeted and served us was very nice and polite. The place was deserted but the food was really good. The bread is amazing and tasty. I was warned that the beef I was having was sweet (ground walnuts and pomegranate) and it was. The kabobs were quite good according to my husband. Would recommend it for sure! read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about i Cook Persian Cuisine:

Several times I went there to eat my favorite Persian food. But they have very rude waitress, their name is Shiva!

She had too much attitude with some people when I went there with all the families or friends and she never respected us! The food... is excellent, good quality and very fresh we lost it forever! But I'm never back and my husband misses this food. read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to i Cook Persian Cuisine even more worthwhile, guests often choose the fine, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dipping into the own hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine.
