That was our second visit. The first time was excellent. This time we had an appetizer of vegetable pasta that was delicious and came with some sauces. For the net we had 2 cattle-Biryani, a chicken-Vindaloo and a Dal court. It was just as good as the first time. The flavors were wonderful. The spiciness was perfect in the medium. The shares are quite large and prices are very reasonable. The service can sometimes be... read more. I called to check if they server halal meat and the lady said yes, but we do not have the certification. This put me in doubt that if I should order the food. So my request is if you server halal food then what is...the problem with not getting the certification? I would say, with this simple implementation you will get a big chunk of customers. Please consider. Thank you! Note: This is now during the pandemic so can... read more.
