What User likes about Premiere Moisson: We explored the underground shopping area near the main train station and settled on this place for lunch. We ordered our soups and sandwiches and picked them up from the counter. We sat in a common dining area that was really crowded since it was a business day. This location did a big business. Our food was really good and we enjoyed watching the people go by as we ate. Staff behind the counter spoke limited English... read more.
