Wow !! This place is superb. Nicely designed. Friendly. The bread is fresh and tasty like not many others in the city. Coming from a real bread-addict, which I am, that says a lot. I only wish they had more choices in the organic field. You have to ask which of the breads are made from organic flour, but at least they do offer some. A real treat to have such a high-quality place open up and so close to Jean Talon mar... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Automne Boulangerie:

Bread is excellent because they use the old, time-consuming way to do it to great effect. My favorite is the simplest one they call Le Bâtard. Breads like croissant, chocolatine and ginger snaps are ok, but definitely not their fort. The service is slow,... developed and, for whatever strange business idea, only Interac that leaves cashless non-canadians in the cold. read more.
