Had a chance to visit the canal lounge a few days ago and had a great experience. The ambiance is chill and relaxed and the service was great. There isn't a huge selection of drinks and they do not serve food but if you aren't picky and just want to get a simple glass of wine, this is a nice spot to go to. You may even be lucky enough to get a seat outside! read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area.

What User doesn't like about Canal Lounge:

In a nicer canal location on the water is this small barge converted into a bar. Seating is cramped and there is no sound-deadening so expect to shout to be heard. But very cute look. I had a "house cocktail" the Malibu Breeze.

If there had been alcohol in the drink I would have given a better review. How could I tell there was little to no alcohol? I can drink HALF a glass of wine prior to my pupils starting to dila...
