We had a bite here touring through the montreal communities. A popular place for locals. We had a few dishes we could share. The bulghur and smoked maquerel were quite good. The smoked sturgeon on reybread outstanding (the slices of reybread only too thick) read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Larry's:

A friend of mine recommended this place, who lives in the area. Basically its a lot of smaller plates and tapas type dishes. We ordered a selection of things from the menu, and we liked about half of them. The lentils were flavorless, and the spaghetti was a little salty. The ceviche was good, and so was the cauliflower, albeit a little too salty also. Don't think I'd return. read more. At Larry's in Montréal, a hearty brunch is served for breakfast, where you can have your fill enjoy thoroughly. In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the customers also love. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, The sugar-sweet desserts of the local also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
