This is the first time we were going to eat at this restaurant. The lady at the entrance was very nice and convinced us to enter to eat. We were with our five-year-old boy. a menu for children was offered, which is rather rare on the large alley. the entrance and the meals arrived very hot and it was excellent. my husband asked for his piece of blue beef but he had it well cooked. I also find that $16 for a table d'h... read more. What User doesn't like about Restaurant Louis-Hebert:

At the beginning of the meal, everything seemed correct. However, the more the meal went, the more it was spoiled. the waitress left the restaurant in the middle of the meal and it was long before someone else took over us. We got a glass of water in two hours. The drinks were poor, we didn't even drink them. the server saw that the drinks were still full at the end but it didn't even ask a question. I asked for a bl...
