Excellent food! Marvelous dessert!! Located in a small court food but the nice people that run it make you fill like you are in the most famous restaurant in earth! You must try it! read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations.

What rdmiller pcj doesn't like about Anar:

I have not had a lot of exposure to Persian cuisine . I was a bit underwhelmed . The room felt crowded which is of some concern these days . Very noisy . Service was good . I tried the slow cooked chicken at the suggestion of the waitress . While I don't have any specific criticisms I just did not enjoy it all that much . Price was fine . So while I really don't have complaints I probably would not come back . read more. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Anar because they have enchanting desserts that will definitely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, The guests of the restaurant also appreciate the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. For the undecided, the inviting smell of fresh flatbread combined with the delicious, syrupy promise of fresh baklava might be the necessary push - the Middle East is undeniably closer than expected, the menu also includes delectable vegetarian dishes.
