this restaurant is a bit off the path from most Richmond restaurants. But easy parking, great Hakka style food. friendly staff. Chef owned, so is consistent from visit to visit. read more. What User doesn't like about Hakkasan Bistro:

Went there for the surf and turf dinner for four. Very skimpy with their proportion. Charged us an extra 3.50 for changing the dessert to one bun instead of what they said was a dessert valued at 7.90 for two people which was just a bite of jello. So basically got charged 7 dollars for a bun that usually costs 7.95 for two. Ripoff. read more. This Bistro is small yet refined and captures attention not just with its ambiance, but also with its selection of typical, tasty meals at typically affordable prices, Furthermore, the customers love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, Many visitors find it particularly great that they can try the versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine.
