I was in Walmart over the lunch hour and wanted a quick meal (take out) as I was in a hurry. At 12:30 there was a long line. Two workers were at the counter and two were in the kitchen. There were six orders up on the screen at all times while I was waiting (two were large orders). One worker took the orders and operated the till while a second worker got the drinks and set up the trays so the line moved along. Since... read more.
