We stopped in for lunch on our way through town. I had the Aloha panini with Caesar salad and my spouse had the jerk panini with pasta salad. Both were very good. We got coffees, a cookie and a cinnamon bun (fresh out of the oven) on our way out. We couldn't get out of there fast enough. It was uncomfortably cold and extremely smoky. Our eyes were burning and we couldn't stop shivering. We'll definitely stop in again... read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Dr Java's Coffee House:

This has been my favourite place to eat for the last 7 years. However, the 4 times I've gone in the last few weeks have been disappointing. The display beverage cooler was a mess and you couldn't even see what drinks were available. It was not nicely displayed and organized. The walls by our table had spilled food and drink on them.

The tables were dirty. My chicken wild rice soup was cold and the rice was hard in th... read more.
