While in Walnut Grove area, we stopped in this BP's. It was a good decision as it is next to the movie theatre, so you can dine and take in a movie. We were quickly seated by the friendly host, who was also our waiter. She was very friendly, but as busy as it had been wasn't aware of the soup of the day with the lunch special. They have a $10 lunch special which has a host of yummy combinations to order. We ordered t... read more. What User doesn't like about Boston Pizza:

We went here as a family Monday . Well we were served our food with no cutlery we had to get it off other tables . They left empty stater plates cluttering the table when they served the main . Then they would not honor their own online voucher for a free starter if you spend over $10 . The food was not good service was worse . Not somewhere I would ever recommend or re visit .
