What User likes about Maru Sushi: Maru has been my favourite sushi place for years now. My boyfriend won't eat anywhere else now, and is always disappointed with any other sushi restaurant we go to. The service is great, the food is great, and the costs are priced well accordingly read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Maru Sushi:

I thought that the portions were good but the rice was mushy on all of our rolls. Also a weird complaint but the tables were set really low so it was uncomfortable to sit at. I have never really thought about table height until I ate here but turns out it makes a difference. The service was alright, slow but decent. With so many other places in the area I have a hard time recommending this spot for sushi. read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Maru Sushi from Langley, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of what you know meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, and healthy Japanese dishes are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat. But the undisputed highlight of this restaurant is the fine Sushi such as Maki and Te-Maki, On the menu there are also several Asian menus.
