Driving up highway towards Oliver is this little food trailer on the right hand side of the road. It's not very big but the food is all homemade per order. The people are friendly and very accommodating. Prices seem high until you see the portions. OMG the best chimichanga I have had since the Laughing Loon. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Sofia's Mexican Restaurant: We came here because of the positive reviews BUT as home cook whose been cooking Mexican for five years I (and wify) found the food to be bland. And they had no chipotle mayo a must if you want flavours found in Mexico. Portions were...large but perhaps a Mexican restaurant should not downplay flavours and heat levels. read more. Anticipate the varied, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), menus from Spain, delight the customers with their tasty sweet and spicy sauces and spices. There's also delicious pizza, baked straight from the oven using traditional methods, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
