My wife and I went to Sheep's Head for our wedding anniversary in April of 2017. First time experience, was excellent. The food, the service and quality of food amazing. We will go back. read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Sheep's Head Bistro:

We expected this place to be very good. Reservations are recommended because they have limited seating. I was expecting the different layers of flavor you usually get at places like this but didn't get that. We were disappointed when we noticed that you could get the things from the online menu to go. After dinner we went to the ice cream side and then noticed that's where the menu that was posted online is available... read more. This Bistro is small yet refined and captures attention not just with its ambiance, but also with its selection of typical, delicious meals at typically small prices, It's worth mentioning that the original Canadian menus are well received by the guests of the establishment. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the customers also love.
