What User likes about Riley's Bakery: I have so many great memories from Riley's from my childhood, and am pleased to say that they've not changed! My grandmother used to be a customer, and Riley's baked goods were a staple. In high school, we would often go there for lunch, as the portions were large and the prices low. Amazing value. I don't live in Cornwall anymore, and I make sure to plan a Riley's trip every time I'm home for a visit. I went there w... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Riley's Bakery:

If you compare this with the old Riley bakery, it is less than 1 star. Sandwiches are not the same quality, plus more expensive. When you enter, shelves are usually empty. The old owner, Rob, was never at the counter and pulled more and more fresh, baked goods out of the ovens. Timers go away all the time when he was the tray after the tray on the shelves. He was an amazing baker. The food was simple and delicious. A... read more.
