Started with Oysters and finished up with amazing main entrees of seafood pasta and filet mignon matched with great craft beer and a lovely glass of wine. Service was outstanding....decor modern and welcoming. read more.

In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Table 21:

As the web site said it was closed Sunday, I called to find out if it would be open for Fathers Day. The person who answered the telephone said yes it is open. I asked if they would have fresh oysters, again the answer was yes. Upon arrival at the entrance downstairs we were advised we could get the same menu downstairs. Fine we accepted, were seated handed menus by a very nice friendly waitress. We then ordered our o... read more. The
