As soon as you get near the door you can smell it, and standing in line it drives you crazy, but when you sip that first taste of foam it is soooo worth it. Powell River has the best drinking water, but somehow that doesn't translate to a decent brew for me, or other restaurants I've tried. This place is the exception. Never eaten here, but if the food is half as good as the coffee you'll be thrilled. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about River City Coffee Roasters:

9.00 plus tip for this micro panini, that was basically spinach and bread. Spinach was the last ingredient on the menu, it really should be first, and really large the customer knows the Athenian Panini is packed with leaves and stems. Thanks for nothing River City Coffee. Afraid to come back and try anything else. read more. A visit to River City Coffee Roasters becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here.
