This wonderful patisserie is on Westminster in Montreal West , and has only been there a few months. Therefore this is a new review. It's a lovely , clean patisserie/cafe with an incredible variety of pastries and cakes. We just had fresh croissants and the best cafe au Lait I've enjoyed in a long time. There is a lot of competition in this small area but no one can beat these fresh baked goods. read more. What User doesn't like about Les Delices Lafrenaie:

I went to the one on Taschereau, Brossard QC.(south shore of Montreal)The cake was pretty average with sub par presentation, especially the round plastic box, that box is so tight make sure you don't cut your finger while opening or flip the cake over. It also makes the cake look like it came from a grocery store.Taste wise I expected a bit more from a bakery but I could've bought a frozen cake from the grocery, thaw... read more. With the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Les Delices Lafrenaie becomes even more attractive, It shows that the traditional Canadian menus are well received by the customers of the local. Of course, there's also delicious pizza, baked fresh according to traditional recipes, Also, there are oven-warm baked goods available, complemented by an array of cold and hot beverages.
