Food was Ok, unremarkable. Onion soup was sub par but creme brulé was delicious. Service was good. Server was friendly. Restaurant looked clean (though I saw an ant on the table). Coke was in glass bottles which was fun. This was one of two kosher restaurants we ate at in Montreal. We thought the other one (called Exception) was better. read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Cafe Restaurant Mozart:

To begin, sit like sardines, we had to ask people if they could move their tables, that would have been the waiter's job, but replied, that's all I have .. What? the waiter is rude and needs lessons on...proper hosting training . Avoid read more. Get ready for innovative combinations of different ingredients at Cafe Restaurant Mozart in Montréal that perfectly embody the concept of a excellent fusion cuisine, Easy digestible Mediterranean meals are also available. For those for whom this is not enough, to persuade themselves to visit the Cafe Restaurant Mozart, the smell of fresh flatbread or the scrumptious, sticky sweetness that fresh baklava promises might help - the Middle East is definitely closer than one thinks, Furthermore, the magical treats of this establishment sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
