We were a party of 40 people and we had no complaints about the service, quality and the presentation of the food. The food variety was good and just enough and not too much to avoid waste. The decor was combination of Iranian and Azerbaican. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Restaurant Arem:

Very nice place. Well designed and decoration is nice too. Don't expect Turkish food here. The food is good as well as the service but this place is more about ambiance specially after 21:00. I recommend the Olive salad and the Veal Shank. They recommend to you the Turkish kebab but the dish has nothing to do with Turkish kebab. I recommend this place to the people who want good food and have fun after 21:00. On Saturda... read more. At Restaurant Arem in Montréal, you'll find typical, traditional Kebabs in multiple variations along with the spices and spice mixes characteristic of the tasty Turkish cuisine - either over a Lahmacun, in a Sucuk or in one of the tasty salads with lentils or bulgur, It's worth mentioning that the traditional Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the restaurant. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The customers also rave about the tasty, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the specialties from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
