I am very picky (there are a lot of stuff that I do not eat) and the staff have been so nice, patient and accommodating with me: they made me a semi-vegetarian plates with items to replace salmon, duck and foie gras. Everything was good, especially the ham and cucumber sandwiches and the desserts! Their scones were moist and fluffy. The tea selection is interesting, we had a hard time making a choice because there we... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Le Parloir:

First time there this week. Food is good. Service is excellent. The tea tray should have more sandwiches than deserts. I am diabetic and they should offer options. read more.
