By far my favorite café to go too for a business/casual meeting with a client, or a quick walk with the family to grab brunch and a vanilla latte. Their coffee is fresh and always gives me my caffeine buzz I need to start my day. They are family friendly, chalk board and children's toy box tucked in a corner for families. It's also a nice chilled spot to go too on a Friday night it's a great date night spot. Our kids... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Chiang Rai:

Staff very friendly and helpful. Two meals out of four were very good but two were average and not very inviting. Maybe different choices off the menu would have made a difference but bland is an apt description for two of the dishes. The service was average mainly due to the order that the food was presented from the kitchen - serving other tables as well as ours meant not all food received at same time. read more. A visit to Chiang Rai becomes even more rewarding due to the large range of coffee and tea specialties, And also, the restaurant provides a range of Austrian national dishes, including Wiener Schnitzel, delicious Kässpätzlen and a portion of Kaiserschmarrn - with or without raisins. The dishes are prepared typically Asian, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian dishes.
