The Menu of Full House Desserts from York contains about 88 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about CA$16. What User likes about Full House Desserts:

I have had durian pancakes before (in the motherland of Hong Kong to say the least) and so it speaks volumes when I say that these Durian Pancakes were actually better than any other durian pancake I've ever tried and better than the ones I've tried in Hong Kong. What?! How can that be?! I was so shocked and surprised myself too! These yellow durian pillows (tasted and felt like it) were so fluffy and soft. The skin o... read more. What User

doesn't like about Full House Desserts:

Went on a Saturday around 9pm. There is no table set up. After you order you are not allow to have it there, they only do take outs. There is only one employee, which is also the cashier and the one who prepare the take outs. One man show. Totally dissapointed with the mango with sago, its just concentrated mango juice + sago + cubed mangoes. read more. Perfectly pairing with the meals of the restaurant are the fresh and succulent juices on the drinks menu, Many visitors are particularly looking forward to the experience of versatile, fine Chinese cuisine. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Full House Desserts does not disappoint with its large selection of desserts, The guests of the establishment also appreciate the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
