Now, a busy parking lot is usually a good indication of the popularity of the food, and while I'm sure that's true here, it's also a bit cramped for space. The veal on a bun sandwiches are fantastic, but you might get some sticker shock when you see your bill. My order was for three veal sandwiches with provolone and mushrooms, and I was out the door for a staggering $34. T... read more. What User doesn't like about California Sandwiches:

I have been eating at California sandwiches at Sheppard and Wilson location for years. Recently tried this location for the first time since we moved very close to Richmond hill in Vaughan. Somehow I noticed that their veal was tougher and the portion of the breaded veal that they put on the bun was 30% less than the other locations. Once was enough! read more.
