The wings were good but not outstanding, the beer special added a nice touch. However, the lack of sound during a sports game was disappointing. The decor and friendliness of the staff were highlights. The fish and chips were subpar, while the Sheppard pie was delicious. The overall menu got better over time, offering unique options like crab cakes. The lamb stew and potato pancake were a hit. The terrace offered excellent service and great food, with standout dishes like the Steak and Kidney Pie. Construction on Yonge Street has impacted the restaurant's traffic.
