We were in PEC for two nights and went to the large Slickers location on both days; the ice cream is totally amazing and we couldn't resist. It was our first time traveling in the area and we were with friends who had been many times before and loved it. The flavours and quality was off the charts. However, one of the two women working there during both of our visits was unpleasant. The first time, she was not especi... read more. What User doesn't like about Slickers Ice Cream:

Slicker is a very busy location in Bloomfield and we went to give it another try; but it was unanimous decision not to return. Some unusual flavours and lots to choose from but the servings are smaller than what you'd get elsewhere. Not one of the five of us were thrilled with our treat. read more.
